

In August, 2003 Joseph Creek Ran Dry...

So in early 2004 Mainstreams with the Canadian Columbia River Intertribal Fisheries Commission held a community meeting which was attended by over sixty people with political leaders from all levels of government. We formed a steering committee to oversee a stream restoration project at Kinsmen Park guided by principles of education and habitat restoration.

The project was based on science.

Jim Abbott, MP

Mayor Ross Priest

Big logs with roots attached cabled to big boulders guided by Gerry Oliver, RPBio

Numerous plant work parties with Rocky Mountain Naturalists

City Parks Staff Workshop

Professional Planters

School Programs

Civic Celebrations of Joseph Creek

